

1%ers

To be in the top 1 percent of incomes nationally, families need to take in a minimum of $389,436. The average income of America's 1-percenters is $1,153,293 ... Yet when incomes are measured state by state, the study shows wildly diverging fortunes for 1-percenters. ... Teton County, Wyo., is the richest in America when it comes to 1 percent incomes, with 1-percenters earning $2.2 million. New York County, or Manhattan, ranks second, with a $1.44 million threshold ... By contrast, you need only $97,000 to be a 1-percenter in Holmes County, Miss., or Lamar County, Ala.

New York Times, September 25, 2016