

2016 Presidential election

Jeff Jarvis @jeffjarvis

Hey @Snowden, for context, how long would it take the NSA to dedupe 650k emails?

To:/CC:/BCC:, hash both sets,
then subtract those that match.
Old laptops could do it in minutes-to-hours.

Edward Snowden, responding to Jeff Jarvis, debunking Donald Trump's claim it would be impossible for the FBI to review 650,000 Hillary Clinton emails in 8 days, most of which were duplicates
