

2016 Presidential election

People have talked about a miracle.
I'm hearing about a nightmare.
It's hard to be a parent tonight
for a lot of us.

You tell your kids don't be a bully.
You tell your kids don't be a bigot.
You tell your kids do your homework and be prepared.

And then you have this outcome and you have people putting children to bed tonight and they're afraid of breakfast. They're afraid of,
"How do I explain this to my children?"
