

Abortion

To construe abortion as a crime against the privilege of looking inside women [as judge James Ho does in defending standing for antiabortion doctors trying to reverse mifepristone's federal approval] is to construe them as objects offered up for the visual consumption, pleasure and, of course, control of others.

Rhonda Garelick,
Los Angeles Times, August 22, 2023