

Aging

Japan already knows better than anyone how quickly 100-year lives can proliferate even as the general population shrinks.

Fifty years ago Japan had just 327 centenarians; in 2017 it had 67,824, and the largest per capita ratio of them in the world.

Financial Times, August 8, 2018