

Bullshit

The President's physical exam today at the Walter Reed National Military Medical Center went exceptionally well. The President is in excellent health and I look forward to briefing some of the details on Tuesday.

Dr. Ronnie Jackson

Statement released by the White House on January 12, 2018, following Trump's first physical exam since taking office, purportedly written by his doctor, Rear Admiral Ronny Jackson, whose first name is misspelled