

Bullshitters say

I come from the poor people, and I have been here working my whole stinking career for people who dont have a chance, and I really resent anybody who says I'm just doing this for the rich – give me a break.

Republican Senator Orrin Hatch, fulminating at suggestions that the 2017 tax bill, which he spearheaded through the Senate, favors corporations and the rich, including the late changes he introduced to greatly benefit Bob Corker, Donald Trump and other real estate developers, resulting in #CorkerKickback
