

Bullshitters say

I do not watch much television.

I know they like to say – people that don't know me – they like to say I watch television.
People with fake sources – you know, fake reporters, fake sources. But I don't get to watch much television, primarily because of documents.
I'm reading documents a lot.

Donald Trump, quoted by New York Times, December 9, 2017, which reported, "People close to him estimate that Mr. Trump spends at least four hours a day, and sometimes as much as twice that, in front of a television"
