

By the numbers

Households with a retirement account have a median income of $86,235, while those without one have a median income of $35,509, according to the NIRS.

Financial Times, September 21, 2016,
National Institute of Retirement Security data