

By the numbers

A study by the Pew Research Center released Thursday found that homeownership rates since the peak in 2004 are down across the board. But while the rate among white households has fallen 5%, it has fallen 16% for African-American households.

**¶
The rate among households age 65 and up has fallen just 3%, compared with 18% for those younger than 35.

Wall Street Journal, December 16, 2016