

Christianity

What has happened to American Christianity is there is this afterglow of what a candidate is supposed to represent.
It is no longer moral character.
It is policy positions on things that bother evangelicals.

Wayne Flynt, reflecting on the overwhelming support among evangelicals for Trump in 2016