

Civil wars

Gettysburg,

What an unbelievable battle that was.

What an unbelievable, I mean it was so much and so interesting and so vicious and horrible, and it's so beautiful in so many different ways.

It represented such a big portion of the success of the country. Gettysburg, wow.

I go to Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, to look and to watch and the statement of Robert E. Lee, who's no longer in favor,
— did you ever notice that? no longer in favor —
“Never fight uphill, me boys! Never fight uphill.”

They were fighting uphill.

He said, “Wow, that was a big mistake.”
