

COVID-19 coronavirus

By attacking and weakening WHO while the agency was doing all it could to protect peoples in some of the most vulnerable countries in the world, President Trump has in my view met the criteria for the act of violence the international community calls a crime against humanity.

Richard Horton,
*The COVID-19 Catastrophe