

Dead-in-the-heads say

My voice was fine.

What did I say wrong on those recordings?

Donald Trump.

when asked if he's concerned about his voice on a recording released to the public in which he bragged about taking classified documents home, keeping them, showing them to people having no security clearances, and admitting he lacked authority to declassify them now that he's no longer president