

Dead-in-the-heads say

Our government: look at it!
It isn't too big to fail;
it's too big to succeed.
It's too big to succeed
so we can afford no retreads or nothing will change with the same people and same policies
that got us into the status quo.
Another Latin word, status quo.
It stands for, "Man, middle-class every-day Americans are really gettin' taken for a ride."

Sarah Palin,
2015 Iowa Freedom Summit speech
