

Fascism

What makes a movement Fascist is not ideology but the willingness to do whatever is necessary — including the use of force and trampling on the rights of others — to achieve victory and command obedience.

Madeleine Albright, Fascism: A Warning