

Food

In 1930 the average US family spent 24.3 per cent of its income on food.

By 2007 that number had fallen to 9.8 per cent.

This is because America's food system, like most of the world's, became dramatically more concentrated, industrialised and globalised over that period.

Rana Foroohar,
Financial Times, December 11/12, 2021