

Fox News

A mountain of direct evidence demonstrates actual malice without resort to motive or other circumstantial factors.

But why did Fox peddle this false narrative to its viewers? Fox's correct call of Arizona for Joe Biden triggered a backlash among its audience and "the network [was] being rejected."

Rival networks such as Newsmax took advantage of the opening by promoting "an alternative universe" of election fraud.

So Fox went on "war footing" caring more about protecting its own falling viewership than about the truth.

Dominnion Voting System v. Fox News Network
[references to exhibits omitted]