

Good news

Tiki Brand is not associated in any way with the events that took place in Charlottesville and are deeply saddened and disappointed. We do not support their message or the use of our products in this way.

Tiki Brand press release bemoaning the use of Tiki torches – intended to decorate backyard parties – by white supremacists and neo-Nazis marching at nighttime through Charlottesville, Virginia