

Housing

But the fact that a multinational PE [private equity] firm can become the country's biggest landlord is something that simply doesn't sit well with a lot of Americans.

It illustrates all too starkly how the financial markets seem to exist in a closed loop of service to themselves.

Rana Foroohar,
Financial Times, February 13, 2022