

Hypocrites say

Selective, politically motivated actions have no place in our democracy.

Glenn Youngkin, 9:30 AM – Aug 9, 2022, denouncing the FBI's court-ordered search for documents belonging to the National Archives, in a statement that is both patently absurd about politics in a democracy and a classic, selective, politically motivated example of hypocrisy, diverting attention from Bill Barr's reign as Trump's Attorney General, during which he ran the DOJ as if it were Trump's personal lawyer, not the people's
