

Impeachment

In the days following the phone call, I learned from multiple U.S. officials that senior White House officials had intervened to “lock down” all records of the phone call, especially the official word-for-word transcript of the call that was produced – as is customary – by the White House Situation Room.

This set of actions underscored to me that White House officials understood the gravity of what had transpired in the call.

From the complaint a whistleblower filed with the IG of the intelligence community about Trump's behavior
