... a coming trial in Delaware's Chancery Court. The defendants: Tesla's ... board of directors, which in January 2018 voted co-founder and CEO Elon Musk a 10-year pay package that includes a minimum wage (which he gives to charity) and 12 levels of stock options tied to market value, potentially worth $56 billion if Tesla hits a market cap of $650 billion. (The options vest on each $50 billion in growth). ... The potential award is larger than the gross domestic product of 27 nations.
