

Judges

As of April 1, a record 39 judges have been appointed to lifetime posts on the Supreme Court and the federal courts of appeals.

Right-wing organizations like the Federalist Society and the Heritage Foundation have played an important role too, including spending millions of dollars promoting Trump's judicial nominations ... These nominees have developed a clear pattern of protecting corporations, the wealthy and the powerful over all people.

Elliot Mincberg,
The Washington Spectator, May 3, 2019