

Kwiplers say

Amend the Constitution to prevent gerrymandering by requiring Congressional districts in each state to represent populations within a maximum of 1% of each other, to be bordered within the state by as few straight lines as possible, and to have population densities inversely proportional to their size