

Kwiplers say

Enhance America's infrastructure

(1) without privatizing it

(2) without giving tax breaks and windfall profits to private investors

(3) without issuing government bonds, which increases government debt and income inequality resulting from paying interest to bondholders

by

(1) contracting to build or improve assets of long-lasting public value, like roads, schools, parks, housing

(2) printing money and paying for work as it's done