

Liars say

I must state that you, sir, under historic scrutiny, were proven innocent.

Donald Trump,
to Brett Kavanaugh during Kavanuagh's swearing in ceremony at the White House, even though Kavanaugh was never on trial and if he had been and had been found "not guilty," it would only mean he had not been proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt, not that he had been proven innocent
