

Liars say

That night [January 5, 2021], the Defendant approved and caused the Defendant's Campaign to issue a public statement that the Defendant knew, from his meeting with the Vice President only hours earlier, was false:

"The Vice President and I are in total agreement that the Vice President has the power to act [to overturn elections]."

United States of America v. Donald J. Trump