

Lies

"Don't be so overly dramatic about it, Chuck. You're saying it's a falsehood ... Sean Spicer, our press secretary, gave alternative facts to that," she said.

"Alternative facts are not facts. They are falsehoods," replied Mr Todd.

Financial Times, January 21, 2017, quoting an exchange between Kellyanne Conway, Trump's Minister of Propaganda and defender of Spicer, who, echoing Trump, had lied by claiming that turnout for the inauguration was larger than turnout for the protest march a day later, and Chuck Todd, moderator of NBC's Meet the Press
