

National emergency

We will have a national emergency and we will then be sued and they will sue us in the Ninth Circuit even though it shouldn't be there and we will possibly get a bad ruling and then we'll get another bad ruling and then we'll end up in the Supreme Court and hopefully we'll get a fair shake and win in the Supreme Court just like the ban – they sued us in the Ninth Circuit and we lost and then we lost in the appellate division and then we went to the Supreme Court and we won.

Donald Trump, February 15, 2019, announcing a national emergency because he didn't get the funding he wanted for a wall
