

Native Americans

In 2000, as the expanding Native American casino industry in upstate New York threatened his own gambling interests in New Jersey, the businessman took aim at the St Regis Mohawk tribe.

Trump secretly spent $1m on local newspaper adverts that portrayed the tribe as organized criminals and cocaine pushers.
Under a photograph of syringes and lines of powder ran the question:
"Are these the new neighbors we want?"
