

Politics

Personal ambition is a necessary element for any political candidate.

You got to get out of bed in the morning and be able to really believe in your heart that you have something to offer to folks that's better and different.

I have no argument with people who are involved in politics being ambitious.

You need to have it, but it can't be what governs your decision-making.

Ambition can't be what makes you decide how to do things as a public figure.
