

Populists say

The fruits of the toil of millions are boldly stolen to build up colossal fortunes, unprecedented in the history of the world, while their possessors despise the republic and endanger liberty.

Preamble to the 1892 People's Party platform, written by Ignatious Donnelly