

Poverty

Our obligation to the poor is not just one of providing assistance to strangers but one of compensation for harms that we have caused and are still causing them.

Peter Singer,
"What Should a Billionaire Give
— And What Should You?"