

Profiles in courage

He's our President, OK? ...
You're not going to turn you back on the President.

John Kasich, Republican Governor of Ohio, when asked,
after having just condemned Trump's claim that there's a moral equivalency between anti-racists and the KKK and neo-Nazis, if he "would be willing to be the guy who goes around to Republican leaders and says, 'This is our moment, we will tell this President we no longer support him, period'"
