She destroyed the city of San Francisco, it's — and I own a big building there — it's no — I shouldn't talk about this but that's OK. I don't give a damn because this is what I'm doing. I should say it's the finest city in the world — sell and get the hell out of there, right? But I can't do that. I don't care, you know? I lost billions of dollars, billions of dollars. You know, somebody said, "What do you think you lost?" I said, "Probably two, three billion. That's OK, I don't care." They say, "You think you'd do it again?" And that's the least of it. Nobody.

They always say, I don't know if you know. Lincoln was horribly treated. Uh, Jefferson was pretty horribly. Andrew Jackson they say was the worst of all, that he was treated worse than any other president. I said, "Do that study again, because I think there's nobody close to Trump." I even got shot! And who the hell knows where that came from, right?
