

Public discourse

“Undercover,” “informant,” “confidential informant”

– those are words I’m familiar with.
I’ve never heard the term “spy” used.

Trey Gowdy,
a former federal prosecutor, commenting on Trump calling the informant used by the FBI in its investigation of reported connections between members of his campaign and Russian intelligence agents a “spy” they implanted in his campaign