

Reich wingers say

This should scare the livin' daylights out of American citizens. The way our federal government has gone, it's like what we have thought about the Gestapo and people like that.

Rick Scott, chairman of the National Republican Senatorial Committee, on the court-ordered search warrant authorizing the FBI to search Trump's Mar-a-Lago home for classified documents that belong in the National Archives [but which Trump undoubtedly viewed as a source of supplemental retirement income]
