

Republican kiss-asses say

Appointing department heads who are ignorant about its area of concern and opposed to its mission is the Right thing to do