

Republicans say

If you can't afford health insurance, go gentle into that good night, invite the dying of the light, and do so out of sight, for our delight