

Resisters say

When a terrorist attack comes, you will not necessarily know who did it.

What you can know is that certain kinds of leaders will use that to suspend your rights.
During your fear and your grief you have to mobilize and protest for your own rights because the Reichstag fire is the oldest trick in the Hitlerian book.
You cannot let that trick be played.

Timothy Snyder, referring to the 1933 fire in the German parliament building that Nazis blamed on Communists and used to justify mass arrests of their political opponents
