

Right-wing populism

Poland's ruling Law and Justice party lured Donald Trump to speak in Warsaw by promising him a rapturous rally, to which paid supporters were bussed in from provincial areas to chant "theives" and "traitors" at opposition party members and "Donald Trump!" and "USA!" throughout his speech praising Poland's support for Western values, and, at a press conference afterwards, joking about its supression of the press

July 6, 2017