

Selfie

I have always regarded tracksuits, especially those with hoodies, rather shabby, and so not only would I never wear them, but I despise those who do.

It is a bourgeois standard of casualness that makes us wear our best clothes less than our worst clothes, which is stupid.

Sir David Tang,
Financial Times, April 15-16, 2017