

Sincerity

Sincerity is the consciousness of the man who is taken in by his own act.
Or as it has been put by David Riesman, the sincere man is the one who believes in his own propaganda.

Peter L. Berger, An Invitation to Sociology