

Southern border wall

If my speeches ever get a little off,
I just go: "We'll build a wall!"

You know, if it gets a little boring, if I see people starting to sort of maybe thinking about leaving
– I can sort of tell the audience –
I just say, "We will build the wall,"
and they go nuts.

"And Mexico will pay for the wall!"

But – ah, but I mean it. But I mean it.
