

Supreme Court

After today, no one will have to go back 50 years for the classic case of the Court manipulating standing doctrine, rather than obeying the edict to stay in its lane.

Elena Kagan, dissent in Biden v. Nebraska, et. al.