

Surely you jest

Everybody wants to work in the White House.
They all want a piece of that Oval Office.
They want a piece of the West Wing. ...
So many people want to come in.
I have a choice of anybody.
I could take any position
in the White House and I'll have the choice of the top ten people
having to do with that position.
Everybody wants to be there.

Donald Trump,
talking about his White House,
which has never attracted A-listers
and can't keep its flock of B- and C-listers
