

Surely you jest

While art collections have long graced great rooms and hallways, some luxury homeowners display cherished pieces in bathrooms.

Art lovers say they like the jewel-box effect when vibrant art is featured in small spaces.

Wall Street Journal, December 9, 2016, on the best place for a $110,000 Damien Hirst depiction of a diamond-encrusted skull, according to its owners