

Taxes

Capital gain, by definition, is money you make for the simple fact of having money.
That's it. No work, no nothing.
Just have some money, wait for it to grow, and then you have more money.
Which you clearly should not have to pay taxes on, because that would be unfair. Somehow.

Linda Tirado,
Hand to Mouth