

Taxes

There's nothing to learn from them.

Donald Trump,
on his tax returns, which he refuses to release knowing that voters would learn why he's being audited, how much he earned, how much he gave to charity, which loopholes he took advantage of, how close he came to skirting the law, how much he paid in taxes (if anything), how much he'd benefit from the changes he's proposed to tax law, etc.
